Plot: Gideon Culpepper opens the Last Chance Inn and the guests pour in immediately! Dashing Horace Prickley agrees to help poor flower girl Flossie McDurdle become a lady so she can win her heart's true love, the spineless but wealthy Theodore Vanderthistle. Teddy's scheming mother, Vedalia, has other plans however! She sends for Posey Lee Periwinkle, a beautiful Southern belle, who arrives via Pony Express as a mail-order bride. Unfortunately for her, Posey falls for Gideon instead. Meanwhile, Horace finds that he is falling in love with Flossie and faces the dilemma of helping her and thereby losing her to Teddy. This clever play, a prequel to the other Calamity Gulch comedies, weaves together elements of "My Fair Lady" and "Gone With The Wind".
